

TE AROHA HANDBALL CLUB

Who is Te Aroha Handball ?

The Te Aroha Handball Club has been in existence from 1994, during the early days when Handball was in its infancy in New Zealand. Te Aroha Handball is a member of :

- i) Te Aroha Sports Association
- ii) Handball New Zealand

From 1994 – 2008 the Te Aroha Handball Club has seen many people come and go, with a changing of administrators, managers, officials, and players alike. During this time, activity has continued sporadically but the goals and aspirations of the club have never changed.

Club Training Venue:

Te Whiti Park Gymnasium
Te Whiti Park
Lower Hutt

Club Colours:

Royal Purple, Black & White

Club Logo:

Eel – The club takes its logo from the Te Aroha Association and its close links to the Waiwhetu Stream which is situated running parallel to Te Whiti Park. The Waiwhetu stream was home to a thriving eel population, and is symbolic because of its animal characteristics of toughness, agility, resilience and for its fighting spirit.
